Your battle with the dark is perpetual but well worth it.

- You're allowed to take the treasures of criminals you capture, after all.
- You fight because of your hatred for beings that associate themselves with the darkness.
- You truly want to make the world a better place and protect the innocent.

Originally this was a negative review, not because the game was bad, but because I saw a huge potential that was ruined by a couple small issues, and it was frustrating as I really loved the concept of this game.

First I'd like to put the emphasis on the professionalism of the dev team, after the bad review they tried to reach out and understand. They also gave fair arguments and explanation. And eventually the recent updates of the game tackled most of those "small issues".

The game is not yet perfect of course but I can see a huge improvement, and I respect a lot the work that has been put by the team to fix the game.

The AI is now way better does encourage team play. I found myself thinking about very exiting team strategies that would have never worked before because of the dumb (sometimes too aggressive) AI. It gives so much more depth and replayability to the game.

It's not part of the update log but I have the feeling either the player stats, or the ball weight/vphysics has changed and it makes the game more enjoyable.

The multiplayer games are still pretty epic and fun and the game has become a no brainer when I have friends over.

I can't wait to see the future updates, I really hope the team brings more gameplay options, powerups ? special moves ? new way to shoot the ball ? :)

It's worth the $15, it's packed with fun, good ideas, and a caring dev team willing to enhance the game for the community.. whoever made this game needs to do a lot of work, the game doesn't even start whenever it does start it crashes there are usually no lobby's when there is a lobby nobody joins it this game should be free, once it works, then the developer can make it at least 25 cents. This game doesn't make any sense, it just you go to the hardest song in the game, and press the buttons like crazy that you pass with an "A" (tested and proven by me). Besides that it's IMPOSSIBLE to lose, now answer me, WHAT THE ♥♥♥♥?. I called a girl a meanie and she died, It's like Magica with guns. 10 out of 10 every high school girl's dream. It's being a high school girl without bleeding every month.. This game is a really good stress reliever. You can mix mutators to customize the goat anyway you want. You can even download mods to unlock mutators from the community.. His license plate says SHEN 3... 10/10 would give myself false hope again.

I strongly recommend this game, given that it's free.

It's a fun and cute puzzle "horror" game. It's a "horror" game in the sense that there are ghosts and vampires, but the whole thing is given a very saccharine and childlike tone. There are "jump scares", but the things jumping at you tend to be cutesy.

Some of the puzzles felt a bit unfair (e.g. for one of them, you need to keep talking to the same NPC over and over again even though it seems like he's repeating himself and there's no new dialogue to discover), but on the other hand, I did manage to solve all the puzzles without resorting to a walkthrough or guide, so I guess they couldn't have been that bad.. Bought this only for zombies. No regrets. Fun card game with fairly minimal strategy, nice artwork and an interesting evolve system. It's pretty much exactly what I expected it to be for the price. There are no microtransactions and the game by default starts censored, although the uncensored version really isn't that bad and I'm not sure why anyone would complain.

All in all it's pretty much exactly what it looks like and if you want a cheap card game to waste some time it's not bad.. Interesting game. This is very beautiful, especially if you bleed a little, you can make colorful rocket attacks on the bases. There is a random generation of missions that have missions with hunters who have their weapons set at random, sometimes they have to sweat to cover them! But it is even more fun! The game is very interesting!. I was expecting big anime tiddies. There was none. 0/10 would not recommend.
